

"Homework"

Week of April 13

Sight Words of the Week: away, make, my

Previous Sight Words: I, like, the, is, can, see, big, little, up, down, a, yes, no, to, he, she, it, me, you, and, run, go, as, eat, will, look, play, in, out, we, do, at, they, on, with, why, because, am, are, have, of, what, zero, one, all, love, two, three, four, was, five, six, but, seven, eight, help, nine, ten, said, not, got, this, here, for, by, want, that, be

Must Do: Read at least 20 minutes a day, practice reading and writing sight words
Home Links: 6.8 and 6.9

Homework Tic-Tac-Toe

Directions: Pick an activity a night. Try to get a tic-tac-toe by completing three in a row!

Sight Words Write your weekly sight words (away, make, my) five times using different writing utensils (pencil, marker, pen, crayon, etc).	Reading Repsonse Read a nonfiction book and write/draw three facts you learned.	Handwriting Practice writing the letter V 10 times. Remember to do both uppercase and lowercase.
Addition Make five addition number stories. Remember to draw the picture and write the number sentence.	Counting Count to 100 five times. Fun Ways: silly voices, jumping, loud, whisper Bonus: Practice counting to 100 by 5's and 10's	Reading Response Before reading a nonfiction book, predict things you will learn. Did you learn them? Were you surprised by anything you learned?
Writing Write sentences for each of your new sight words (away, make, my).	Independent Skills Make up a new song to wash your hands to. Remember to wash your hands with warm water and soap for at least 20 seconds.	Recycling Sort materials that can be recycled into categories. ex: paper, plastic, metal, glass, etc.